#1 A: Tá an aimsir ag éirí fuar, nach bhfuil?
(taw un am-shir egg ay-ree foor, nakh will)
The weather's getting cold, isn't it?

B: Tá, tá sí ag éirí an-fhuar.
(taw, taw she egg ay-ree on-oor)
Yes, it's getting very cold.

A: Ó, tá sé ag éirí déanach!
(oh, taw shay egg ay-ree jane-akh)
Oh, it's getting late.

Caithfidh mé imeacht.
(ka-hee may im-akht)
I have to go.

#2 A: Cá raibh tú inné?
(kaw rev too in-yay)
Where were you yesterday?

Bhí inní ag teacht orainn.
(vee im-ree egg chakht oreen)
We were getting worried.

B: Bhí mé tinn. Bhí slaghdán orm.
(vee may cheen) (vee sly-dawn or-um)
I was sick. I had a cold.

A: Ó, dona go leor.
(oh, dunna go lyore)
Oh, too bad.

Tá slaghdán ag teacht ormsa freisin.
(taw sly-dawn egg chakht or-um-suh fresh-in)
I'm getting a cold, too.

B: Bhuel, tá biseach ag teacht orm anois, buíochas le Dia.
(well, taw bish-akh egg chakht or-um un-ish, bwee-khus le jee-uh)
Well, I'm getting better now, thank God.
