- #1 A: Dia duit.
(jee-yuh ghwitch)
Hello.
- B: Dia 's Muire duit.
(jee-yuh smwirra ghwitch)
Hello.
- A: Is mise Máire. Cén t-ainm atá ortsa?
(iss misha moyra) (kane tan-im uh-taw ort-sah)
I am Mary. What's your name?
- B: Is mise Seán. Conas atá tú, a Mháire?
(iss misha shawn) (kunnus uh-taw too, uh woyra)
I am John. How are you, Mary?
- A: Tá mé go maith. Agus tú féin, a Sheáin?
(taw may go mah) (oguss too fane, uh hyoyn)
I'm well. And yourself, John?
- B: Tá mé go h-iontach, go raibh maith agat.
(taw may go heen-takh, gurra mah hoggut)
I'm wonderful, thank you.
- A: Tá sé te inniu, nach bhfuil?
(taw shay cheh in-yoo, nakh will)
It's hot today, isn't it?
- B: Tá, ach níl sé grianmhar.
(taw, akh neel shay green-wur)
Yes, but it's not sunny.
- A: Bhí sé an-scamallach inné freisin.
(vee shay on skom-al-akh in-yay fresh-in)
It was very cloudy yesterday, too.
- B: Bhí, cinnte.
(vee, keen-chuh)
It sure was. (Yes, certainly.)
- An mbíonn an aimsir mar seo i gcónaí?
(un mee-un un am-shir mar shoh ih goe-nee)
Is the weather always like this?
- A: Ní bhíonn, de ghnáth.
(nee vee-un, de ghnaw)
No, not usually.

- A: An bhfuil tú i do chónaí sa cheantar seo?
(un will too ih doh kho-nee suh khyan-tur shoh)
Do you live in these parts?
- B: Níl. Tá mé i mo chónaí i mBoston.
(neel; taw may ih moh kho-nee ih moss-ton)
No. I live in Boston.
- A: Cén fáth go bhfuil tú i San Diego?
(kane faw go will too ih San Diego)
Why are you in San Diego?
- B: Tá mé ag dul chuig bainis. Tá mo chara ag pósadh.
(taw may egg dull hig ban-ish; taw moh khar-ah egg poe-sah)
I'm going to a wedding. My friend is getting married.
- A: Agus cá bhfuil an bhainis?
(ogguss kaw will un wan-ish)
And where is the wedding?
- B: Beidh sí thuas i nDel Mar. Tá mé ag dul suas ansin anois.
(bay shee hoo-uss ih nell mar; taw may egg dull soo-uss un-shin un-ish)
It will be up in Del Mar. I'm going up there now.
- A: An bhfuil síob uait?
(un will sheeb wet)
Do you need a ride?
- B: Níl, go raibh maith agat. Tá carr agam.
(neel, gurra mah hoggut; taw kawr oggum)
No, thanks. I have a car.
- A: An mbeidh tú ag damhsa anocht, mar sin?
(un may too egg dow-sah un-okht, mar shin)
So, will you be dancing tonight?
- B: Ní bheidh, maise. Tá tinneas cinn orm.
(nee vay, moosh-uh; taw chin-uss keen or-um)
No way. I have a headache.
- A: Tá brón orm. Ó, tá sé ag éirí déanach!
(taw broan or-um; oe, taw shay egg ay-ree jane-akh)
I'm sorry. Oh, it's getting late!
- B: Tá, agus tá deifir orm. Caithfidh mé imeacht anois. Slán!
(taw, ogguss taw jeffer or-um; kah-hee may im-akht un-ish; slawn)
Yes, and I'm in a hurry. I have to go now. Bye!
- A: Slán leat!
(slawn lyat)
Bye!
