Poem

(le Síle Ní Rabhartaí)

An Oíche	The Night
Chonaic mé an oíche ag teacht anuas	I saw the night coming down
Mar chóta mór dubh ar an tuath	Like a large black coat on the countryside
Chuala mé na páistí ag dul a luí,	I heard the children going to sleep,
Le torann agus brón sa seomra istigh	With noise and sorrow in the room inside
D'fhág mé an madra ag tafann amuigh	I left the dog barking outside
Go brónach san oíche ag caoineadh sa ghaoth.	Sadly in the night, crying in the wind.

Poem

(le Colm Mac Lochlainn)

Chuala mé an Ghaoth	I Heard the Wind
Chuala mé an ghaoth	I heard the wind
Ag bualadh na bhfuinneog,	Beating the windows,
Ag cnagadh ar na doirse,	Knocking on the doors,
Ag séideadh na nduilleog.	Blowing the leaves.
Chuala mé an ghaoth	I heard the wind
Ag luascadh an chrainn,	Shaking the tree,
Ag leagan na slinnte	Knocking down the shingles
Anuas ón díon.	Down from the roof.
Chuala mé an ghaoth,	I heard the wind,
An oíche go léir,	The whole night,
Ag séideadh na fearthainne	Blowing the rain
Tríd an aer.	Through the air.
