Amhrán Song (ó "Irish Heartbeat")

Tá Mo Chleamhnas Déanta	My Match Was Made
Tá mo chleamhnas déanta ó arú aréir	My match has been made since the night before last
’s ní mó ná go dtaithníonn an bhean liom féin	and the woman hardly pleases myself
ach fágfaidh mé i mo dhiaidh í	but I’ll leave her behind me
’gus imeoidh mé liom féin	and I’ll take off by myself
ar fud na gcoillte craobhach.	throughout the branching woods.
Shiúil mise soir agus shiúil mise siar.	I walked east and I walked west.
Shiúil mise Corcaigh ’gus sráide Bh’l’áth Cliath,	I walked Cork and the streets of Dublin, ach sámháil de mo chailín deas ní fhaca mise riamh.	but the likeness of my lovely girl I never saw.
’Sí an bhean dubh a d’fhág mo chroí cráite.	She’s the black-haired woman who left my heart broken.
D'éirigh mé ar maidin dhá uair roimh an lá	I awoke in the morning two hours before the day
’gus fuair mé litir ó mo mhíle grá.	and I got a letter from my true love.
’gus chuala mé an smóilín 's an londubh á rá	I heard the little thrush and the blackbird say
gur éalaigh mo ghrá thar sáile.	that my love had fled over the ocean.

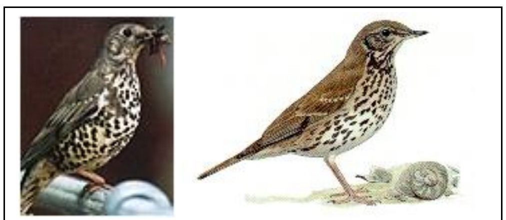
blackbird / londubh



thrush / smólach

linnet / gleoiseach
