An tEarrach

le Sandra Ní Níleáin ó Duanaireacht na nÓg 2

Tá an tEarrach ag teacht, Beidh na héin ag teacht ar ais ón Afraic,

Beidh duilleoga ar na crainn, Beidh na laethanta ag dul i bhfad agus na hoícheanta ag dul i ngiorracht.

Fásfaidh na bláthanna sna gairdíní, Tiocfaidh na péisteanna amach as an talamh,
Íosfaidh na héin iad,
Beidh na huain ag damhsa sna páirceanna.

Is fearr liom an tEarrach ná an Geimhreadh,
Is séasúr deas úr é.
Is maith liom an tEarrach mar bíonn an Geimhreadh fuar thart.

The Spring

by Sandra Ní Níleáin from Poetry of the Young 2

Spring is coming,
The birds will be coming back from Africa,

There will be leaves on the trees,
The days will be getting longer and the nights shorter.

The flowers will grow in the gardens,
The worms will come out of the ground,
The birds will eat them,
The lambs will be dancing in the fields.

I like the Spring better than the Winter,
It's a nice fresh season.
I like the Spring
because the cold Winter is over.
