	Ginger i gCois Fharraige Le Caitlín Uí Thallamhain	Ginger in Cois Fharraige By Caitlín Uí Thallamhain
1.	Maidin áirithe i lár mí Iúil bhí mise in éineacht le breis agus dhá chéad páistí eile ag stáisiún Shraith an Iarthair, ag dul isteach sa traein speisialta ar an mbealach go Gaillimh.	A certain morning in the month of July I was together with more than two hundred other children at the Sraith an Iarthair station, going into the special train on the way to Galway.
2.	Rinne m'athair agus mo mháthair mé a thionlacan chun an stáisiúin.	My father and my mother accompanied me to the station.
3.	Bhí mo sheanmháthair ag tabhairt aire do na leanaí eile.	My grandmohter was taking care of the other children.
4.	An oíche roimhe sin cheapfá go raibh mé ag imeacht go dtí an Astráil leis an rírá sa teach.	The night before you would think I was going to Australia with the hubbub in the house.
5.	Bhí Mugser buartha go raibh mé ag imeacht ach dúirt mé leis go mbeadh a lán rudaí le hinsint agam dó nuair a thiocfainn ar ais.	Mugser was worried that I was leaving but I told him that I would have many things to tell him when I would come back.
6.	Cheap mé go raibh aiféala air ag an nóiméad deireanach nach ndearna sé an scrúdú é féin.	I thought he was regretting at the last minute that he didn't do the exam himself.
7.	Bhí buachaill eile as an gCearnóg a raibh aithne againn air ag teacht agus bhí sé socraithe againn dul go dtí an teach céanna.	There was another boy from An Chearnóg who I knew coming and we had arranged to go to the same house.
8.	Bhí cruinniú mór ag Coiste na bPáistí agus ár dtuismitheoirí roinnt laethanta roimhe sin agus tugadh eolas dúinn ar an áit agus ar na tithe ina rabhamar le fanacht.	The Children's Committee and our parents had a big meeting a few days before that and information was given to us about the place and the houses where we were to stay.
9.	Tugadh píosa páipéir do gach páiste agus a ainm féin air, an scoil ina raibh sé agus ainm an tí i gCois Fharraige ina mbeadh sé ag fanacht ar feadh na míosa.	A piece of paper was given to each child and his own name on it, the school where he was at and the house in Cois Fharraige where he would be staying for the month.
10.	Bhí mise agus Peadar Ó Duibhir le bheith ag fanacht i dteach Uí Cheannabháin ar na hAille.	Peter O'Dwyer and I were to be staying in O'Canavan's house in Aille.
