1.	Tá go leor leanaí eile sa tréad.	There are a lot of other children in the herd.
2.	Tá siad ar fad níos sine agus níos mó ná mise.	They are all older and bigger than me.
3.	Tugann siad aire dom uaireanta, le gur féidir le mam dul ag cuardach bia.	They take care of me sometimes, so that mom can go looking for food.
4.	Itheann muid go leor plandaí.	We east a lot of plants.
5.	Mar sin, caithimid bheith ag bogadh i gcónaí le fásra nua a aimsiú.	Therefore, we have to always be moving to find new vegetation.
6.	Caithfidh an tréad dul go mall, le gur féidir liom coinneáil suas leo.	The herd has to go slowly, so that I can keep up with them.
7.	Hé! Fanaigí liomsa.	Hey! Wait for me.
8.	Is breá liom folcadh a thógáil – folcadh láibe.	I like to take a bath – a mud bsth.
9.	Cosnaíonn an láib mo chraiceann ó theas na gréine – agus ó sciortáin.	The mud protects my skin from the heat of the sun – and from tickets.
10.	Tá mé ag baint an-sult as.	I’m really enjoying it.
11.	Ach anois teastaíonn cúnamh uaim liom le [mo] chur amach.	But now I need help to put me out.
12.	Nuair a théann muid go dtí an abhainn le huisce a ól, deireann mam liom a bheith cúramach.	When we go to the river to drink water, mom tells me to be careful.
13.	D’fhéadadh crogall mór a bheith ag fanacht le greim a fháil orm.	A big crocodile could be waiting to grab me.
14.	Fanfaidh mé slán sábhailte in aice le mo mhaim.	I’ll be safe and secure next to my mom.
15.	Súnn muid an t-uisce suas lenár dtruncaí, agus spraeálann muid isteach inár mbéal é lena ól.	We suck up water with our trunks and we spray it into our mouth to drink it.
16.	Tá níos mó matán agam i mo thrunc ná mar atá agatsa i do chorp ar fad.	I have more muscles in my trunk than you have in your whole body.
17.	Ach tá mé fós ag foghlaim cén chaoi é a úsáid.	But I’m still learning how to use it.
18.	Lá éicint beidh mé in ann breith ar fhréamhacha leis agus síolta a phiocadh suas.	Some day I will be able to grab onto roots and pick up seeds.
19	Ach anois, níl uaim ach uisce.	But now, I just need water.

1.	Tamall fada ó shin, bhí breitheamh críonna ann.	A long time ago, there was a wise judge.
2.	Bhí clú agus cáil air ar fud na tíre.	He was famous all over the country.
3.	Bhí meas air mar fhear cothrom.	He was respected as a fair man.
4.	Oíche amháin, i mbaile cóngarach do theach an bhreithimh, bhí robáil ann – goideadh seoda luachmhara.	One night, in a town close to the judge's home, there was a robbery – valuable jewels were stolen.
5.	Go gasta, thóg oifigigh an bhaile go leor daoine agus cheistigh siad iad.	Quickly, the town officials took many people and questioned them.
6.	Ach ba chuma cá mhéad ceist a chuir siad ní raibh siad ábalta teacht ar an duine a rinne an robáil.	But it didn't matter how many questions they asked, they weren't able to the person who did the robbery.
7.	Sa deireadh chuaigh siad go dtí an breitheamh críonna.	At the end, they went to the wise judge.
8.	Ní dhearna an breitheamh iarracht ar bith ceist a chur ar na daoine a thóg siad.	The judge did not make any attempt to question the people that they took.
9.	Ina áit sin dúirt sé, "Sa seanteampall ar an chnoc ard tá gang ársa.	Instead of that, he said, "In the old temple on the high hill, there is an ancient gong.
10.	Déarfaidh sé linn cé a ghoid na seoda."	It will tell us who stole the jewels."
11.	Thug siad an gang anuas ón teampall agus chroch siad sa chearnóg é.	The brought the gong down from the temple and they hung it in the square.
12.	Go mall san oíche, chuaigh an breitheamh go dtí an chearnóg.	Late in the night, the judge went to the square.
13.	Thug sé pota tine leis, las sé é agus chuir faoin ghang é.	He took a firepot with him, lit it and put it under the gong.
14.	Tháinig toit dhubh ón phota tine agus d'amharc an breitheamh go géar uirthi go dtí gur shíothlaigh an tine.	Black smoke came from the firepot and the judge watched it sharply until the fire died down.
15.	Ansin, go cúramach, chuir sé clúdach ar an ghang agus chuaigh abhaile le dul a luí.	Then, carefully, he put a cover on the gong and went home to go to sleep.
