

1. Má mhothaíonn tú rud bíonn a fhios agat cé acu atá sé te nó fuar.	If you feel a thing you know whether it is hot or cold.
2. Go minic, ní bhíonn ort do lámh a chur air fiú.	Often, you don't even have to put your hand on it.
3. Mothaíonn tú teas ag teacht ó rudaí atá iontach te agus fuacht ag teacht ó rudaí atá iontach fuar.	You feel heat coming from things that are very hot and cold coming from things that are very cold.
4. Bíonn ort bheith an-chúramach i gcónaí.	You always have to be very careful.
5. Tig le tine tú a dhéanamh deas compordach, ach má théann tú róchóngarach di tig léi tú a dhó.	A fire can make you nice and comfortable, but if you go too close to it, it can burn you.
6. Tig leis an ghrian tú a dhéanamh deas te, ach ar lá iontach te tig léi do chraiceann a dhó.	The sun can make you nice and warm, but on a very hot day it can burn your skin.
7. Mar sin bíonn ort hata agus uachtar gréine a chur ort.	So you have to put a hat and sunscreen on you.
8. Mothaigh uisce an fholcadáin sula dtéann tú isteach ann ar eagla go mbeadh sé róthe.	Feel the bath water before you go in, in case it is too hot.
9. Is mar gheall ar an teas a mhothaíonn rudaí te nó fuar.	It is because of heat that things feel hot or cold.
10. Bíonn níos lú teasa i rudaí fuara ná a bhíonn i rudaí teo.	There is less heat in cold things than there is in hot things.
11. Mothaíonn canna líomanáide fuar nuair a thógann tú amach as an chuisneoir é.	A can of lemonade feels cold when you take it out of the refrigerator.
12. Má itheann tú uachtar reoite bíonn do bhéal fuar.	If you eat ice cream, your mouth is cold.
13. Is í an ghrian a thugann an teas agus an solas uile don phláinéad seo againne, an Domhain.	It is the sun that gives all the heat and light to this planet of ours, the Earth.
