

An Geall Page 51

D'ainm	"Your name, please."
Tá	"He's expecting me."
Chnag	Colm knocked on the door of the room and said that there was a visitor.
Bean	"A young woman?" asked DeVane.
Sea	"Yes."
Abair	"Tell her to come in."
Chuaigh	The young woman went into the room and closed the door after her.
Shuigh	Colm sat down again.
Tar éis	After a while he began to fall asleep.
Dhúisigh	He woke from his sleep when he heard the door opening.
Tháinig	The young woman came out.
Bhí	She seemed very upset and tears were streaming down her cheeks.
Dheifrih	She hurried into the elevator and went out of sight.
Ar	At five o'clock DeVane came out of the room.
Chuir	He locked the door.
Bí	"Be here at nine in the morning," he said to Colm.
Tháinig	The two of them came down together in the elevator.
D'imigh	DeVane left in a taxi and Colm walked back to his lodging.
Bhuail	He met Mrs. O'Neil in the hall.
Conas	"How did it go with you today?" she asked.
Go matih	"Well. I got a job as a doorman."
Beidh	"I'll be able to pay you on Friday."
Ní raibh	"I wasn't worried about that," she said laughing.
Beidh	"Your tea will be ready in five minutes."
Tóg	"Take it easy. I got a fine lunch today."
Cuirtear	"It's provided as part of the job."
Bhí	"You were lucky to get a job like that."